How to reach OXFORD CULHAM SCIENCE CENTER

enlarge directions

enlarge further details

The JET Facilities are at the Culham Science Centre, on the A415 road between Abingdon and Dorchester. The site is situated approximately 10 miles (16 km) south of Oxford and 4.5 miles (7 km) east of Abingdon.

By Car

Culham Science Centre can be easily reached by car: exit the A34 at Abingdon onto the A415. Travel east, through the town and exit on the A415 towards Dorchester. The Science Centre is on the left, 3 miles after crossing the river Thames. Alternatively, travel west from the A4074. The Science Centre is on the right, about 1 mile after the traffic lights at Clifton Hampden.

By Train

Culham Railway Station is only a few minutes' walk from the Science Centre's main entrance - from the station just follow the signs. There is a service connection to Oxford, Didcot and London (via Didcot), operated by First Great Western. Train frequency varies greatly throughout the day so you are strongly advised to check the timetable before travelling. As a last resort you may consider taking a taxi from Didcot (~7miles) or from Oxford (~12miles).

By Bus

If travelling from Oxford you will have to change at Abingdon. The X3 bus runs frequently and quickly from Oxford to Abingdon and is operated by Oxford Bus Company. The local bus service is operated by Thames Travel Buses and is route 140 from Abingdon to Culham Science

Centre and on to Wallingford. 140 bus frequency is about one an hour and the last bus is early evening but check the website for up-to-date details.

By Air

We're about 80 mins car or taxi drive from London Heathrow, 100 mins from Birmingham International and 110 mins from London Gatwick Airports. Other possible airports are Luton, or Stansted although they are more distant and/or routes are less direct.

From Airports by bus

Heathrow: the 'Airline' bus runs from Heathrow Central Bus Station or from Heathrow Terminal 4 to Gloucester Green Bus Station, Oxford.

Gatwick: the 'Airline' bus runs from South Terminal or North Terminal to Gloucester Green Bus Station, Oxford.
